

TERMS OF TRADE

Placing Orders/Processing Orders/Invoicing and Payment

1. The order is based on the general terms of trade, the current price list and the confirmation of the order.
2. Spike Art Magazine OG reserves the right to reject orders for advertisements at its own discretion.
3. If the print of the advertisement is illegible, incorrect or incomplete, the ordering party may claim a replacement but only to the extent that the purpose of the advertisement has been compromised. Further liability for Spike Art Magazine OG is excluded. Slight deviations in tone are within the range of tolerance for printing technology. In cases of doubt Spike Art Magazine OG accepts the recommendations of an expert committee for complaints in the printing industry.
4. If defects in the material for printing become clear only during the printing process, the advertising party will have no rights to claim for inadequate printing.
5. Spike Art Magazine OG accepts no liability for advertisements or changes submitted by telephone.
6. Spike Art Magazine OG is willing to make the appearance of other advertisements during the contracted term for completing an advertisement dependent on invoice amounts still open.
7. If payment is overdue or deferred interest on arrears of 14% per annum plus collection costs will be calculated.
8. 2% discount for payment within 14 days. 30 days net.
9. Cancellation can apply only up to the copy deadline.
10. In cases of cancellation after the copy deadline, a cancellation fee of 30% of the volume of advertisements on the books will be invoiced.
11. Invoices are payable and enforceable in Vienna (place of performance and adjudication: Vienna).
